

Here's a clean and professional `README.md` you can use for your personal website hosted at ashfin.vercel.app. It introduces the project, explains the tech stack, and makes it useful for anyone browsing your GitHub:

# 🌐 ashfin.vercel.app – Personal Portfolio Website

This is my personal website built with Next.js and Tailwind CSS, designed to showcase my work, academic background, and interests in mathematics, machine learning, and emerging technologies.

Let me know if you'd like to include:

- Your resume as a downloadable link
- A list of featured projects with links
- GitHub stats or badges
- A dark mode screenshot preview

I can generate those too!
